

REPORT ON MINORITY CELL ACTIVITIES CONDUCTED DURING 2019-2020

Name of Event: Understanding IELTS: The Abroad Dream Catalyst

Date of Event: October 18, 2019

Location: Seminar Hall, South Block, MES College, Marampally, Aluva

Conducted By: Minority Cell and Equal Opportunity Cell, MES College, Marampally, Aluva

PROGRAM REPORT

On 18th February 2019, Minority Cell and Equal Opportunity Cell of MES college conducted a session entitled “Understanding IELTS: The Abroad Dream Catalyst” which focused to discover various IELTS test types, available educational opportunities in foreign universities, different types of scholarships that can be availed in North America and so on. Nearly 100 students from various UG and PG programmes attended the session.

The Session was welcomed by Ms Shereena V B, Co-ordinator of Minority Cell and Assistant Professor (Dept of Computer Application). The inaugural address was done by Dr A. Biju, Principal and Dr. Mansur Ali P P, Vice Principal conveyed the importance of the session. The resource person of the day was Mr. Razal Nasar, who is Examination Assistant in British Council, Human Resource Officer in Montreal , QC and specialized in various academic fields.

Inaugural Address by Dr A. Biju

The session was much in interactive in nature and which made the audience to grab the main ideas of event. Also, the session discussed various IELTS test formats, methods to attend test, registration process etc. After making the audience clear about IELTS, resource person detailed available education opportunities in foreign universities, what are process to get admission in abroad universities and other educational institution. He also explained available scholarships and ways to claim it. At end of session, audience were given chance to clear their doubts on the topic and it made the program more effective.

The session marked the end with Vote of Thanks by Ms. Asna Muhammed.

Razal Nazar, Resource Person of the day

Glance from the session