

MES COLLEGE MARAMPALLY
PARLIAMENTARY AFFAIRS CLUB
ACTIVITY REPORT 2018-19

This year, the parliamentary affairs and electoral literacy club, SC/ST Cell and College Union jointly organized a symposium on “Parliamentary Democracy and Marginalised communities” on February 21 2019, Thursday at the new block seminar hall.

The symposium brought elite scholars in and around Kerala to discuss the scope and limitations of the parliament in the upliftment of marginalised communities to the mainstream. Also we had it in the objectives to provide orientation to students on how the parliament addresses such issues. Important bills and laws passed by the parliament in this direction were also discussed.

Famous Dalit activist Mr Sunny M Kapikkad inaugurated the symposium and delivered the key note address on the topic “Graded Inequality and Democracy”. The next session was handled by transgender activist Ms Sheethal Shyam. She led a discussion on “Gender Justice in Indian Circumstances”.
